Whatever your prior exposure to Judaism, High Holyday services at Makom Ohr Shalom offer an opportunity to experience the Days of Awe as never before. Integrating prayer, storytelling, contemplative exercises, music, guided meditation and movement, Makom's services provide the tools and environment for transformation — and the foundation for a more meaningful year ahead.

All services are led by Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, founder of the Jewish Renewal Movement, Rabbi David Cooper, a leading teacher of meditative and contemplative Judaism, and cantorial soloist and music director, Monty Turner, who leads our acclaimed choir. Rabbi Mordecai Finley shares invaluable spiritual insights at selected services.

Special events, including a Debbie Friedman concert and meditative second day Rosh Hashanah evening service are perfect for persons attending services elsewhere.

MAKE THE VERY MOST OF THESE HIGH HOLYDAYS AND THE COMING YEAR.

Most events are held in historic Barnum Hall on the Santa Monica High School campus. A children's program is available.

If you're resolved to make changes in the year ahead, the High Holydays at Makom are a superb place to start. We hope you'll join us.
